

The area from the bottom left hand corner of the map to the 465 point down to node 1 with the road and stream at the bottom is an area where intensive logging has occurred. The two red nodes will not be addressed until after logging is completed in 2010 or when it is deemed safe to do so. The Node sections are not to scale and will likely be smaller in actual size. Indicators only.

Catchpool Restoration Map